Open Home Pro® - A Must Have For Real Estate Agents

Open Home Pro® turns the mundane and slow-going task of capturing, interpreting, and acting on leads from open houses into a lightning-fast, easy duty. You'll close more sales, get more leads, and increase productivity when you use this app. Features include the ability to take down notes and comments from potential buyers, an easy sign-in process for visitors, easy set-up and personalization options, and automatic emails that are sent to visitors after they attend an open house. You can find out if a visitor is already working with an agent and if the visitor is pre-approved, easily export the data you collect to a CSV file, and you don't need WiFi to collect leads.

- Easy set-up
- Fast and smooth sign-in process
- Automatically generates emails to send to visitors
- Export data to CSV file
- Free real estate app for iPad

DealCalc by VTS - Commercial Real Estate Leasing and Asset Management

DealCalc is a free CRE deal term calculator for brokers and tenant reps to use to figure out how much commission they will get based on the average rent, annual increase, and more. There are fields to input the size, term, starting rent, annual increase, and free rent months. The commission options field allows you to choose from a variety of options like %, % per Year, $ per SF, $ per SF per Year, and none. Allow the app to perform your calculations for you, quickly and easily, and then generate an email to send showing Net Effective Rent, Average Rent, and Total Commission in addition to basic deal terms.

- CRE deal term calculator
- For brokers and tenant reps
- By View The Space, Inc
- A great tool to add to your leasing and management toolkit

3 (c) DESIGNATED AGENT NAME: _____
4 (d) LENGTH OF AGREEMENT: This Agreement begins on the date signed by the Buyer below
5 Expiration Date: _____ at 11:59 PM, or at the closing of the sale if closing occurs 6 automatically extend through the termination date of any written offers or counteroffers, or through the contract pending period if 7 a sales contract is entered into. The Real Estate Company may terminate this Agreement at any time with written notice to the Buyer.

8 (e) REAL ESTATE SERVICES AND COMMISSION: The Real Estate Company agrees to use diligence in locating property
9 which meets Buyer's requirements and approval, and to represent the Buyer in any negotiations for the purchase of property, 10 and to use professional knowledge and skills in assisting the Buyer throughout the transaction. In consideration of the services
11 provided by the Real Estate Company, Buyer authorizes the Real Estate Company to negotiate and accept a real estate commission 12 to be paid by the seller or seller's agent, or, if the sale is not through the Multiple Listing Service and the seller does not agree to 13 pay a buyer's agent commission, Buyer will pay the Real Estate Company _____% of the sales price at the time of closing.

14 (f) EXCLUSIVE BUYER AGENCY: Buyer gives the Real Estate Company the right to act as the Exclusive Buyer's Agent
15 (Real Estate Company becomes the agent of the buyer and is entitled to a commission on any properties purchased by Buyer).
16 The Real Estate Company authorizes the Designated Agent named above to act as the exclusive Designated Agent for the Buyer.

17 (1) Buyer has no buyer agency agreement, pending offers or contracts in effect with any other real estate company.
18 (2) Buyer understands and agrees that other licensees of the Real Estate Company may function as designated agents for 19 the seller, and that other buyers may also work with the Designated Agent or other licensees of the Real Estate Company, 20 and that these other buyers may be shown or sold the same properties that are introduced to the Buyer named above.
21 (3) If the Designated Agent has a listing agreement with a seller, or is working with an unrepresented seller who requests equal 22 status in the transaction, Buyer agrees that the Designated Agent's status will change to that of facilitator with respect to 23 both parties on, and only on, any transaction with that particular seller.
24 (4) In no case shall the Real Estate Company or the Designated Agent be considered to be a dual agent.
25 (5) Buyer agrees to cooperate in completing disclosures, disclaimers, and forms required by the Real Estate Company, and in 26 furnishing necessary financial information, and will read and sign the ADDITION TO BUYER AND SELLER'S (Disclaimer Notice), 27 and the CONSTRUCTION OF AGENCY STATUS, PERSONAL INTEREST DISCLOSURE AND DUTIES OF A REAL ESTATE LICENSEE form.

28 (6) Buyer will have the Designated Agent conduct all negotiations, and perform the initial introduction and showing of any 29 prospective properties, including properties not listed in the Multiple Listing Service (example: for sale by owner or builder).
30 (7) Buyer understands that optional Home Protection Plans are available which may offer protective coverage after the sale.
31 (8) Buyer understands that optional Home Protection Plans are available which may offer protective coverage after the sale.
32 (9) Properties are offered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, sexual orientation, or national origin.

33 (g) TREC RULE 1260-2-.36 states that "An exclusive buyer representation agreement [such as this] is an agreement in which a 34 licensee is engaged to represent a buyer in the purchase of a property to the exclusion of all other licensees." It also advises:
35 (1) The Buyer should make all arrangements to view or inspect a property through the Designated Agent named above, and 36 should not directly contact other licensees [or sellers].
37 (2) The Buyer should immediately inform any other licensee the Buyer may come into contact with (for example, at an open 38 house) [or a builder's model home] that the Buyer is represented by the Designated Agent named above; and 39 (3) In the event the Buyer purchases a property through another real estate licensee or directly from an owner [or builder] without the 40 assistance of the Designated Agent, the Buyer will owe the commission on Line 13 to the Real Estate Company named above.

Big Purple Dot helps you manage your leads. It pulls together all of your leads from Trulia, Zillow, phone calls, and other places, and puts in together so you can turn those leads into clients. All you need to do first is create a free account. You can create and start open houses, add new contacts or edit existing ones, view new leads as soon as they are entered, update your team using notes and status tags, and more. You can see updates from collaborators using your newsfeed, create events and add them to your calendar, send and view documents, and see all calls made in and out of your tracking numbers. Create a task panel and check off or add tasks, listen to recordings of all incoming calls to catch the details pertaining to a lead, and more.

- Dashboard gives an overview of contacts and recent calls

ListingsPlus is an app for real estate agents to use to log, track, and report on their listing activity. Why use your Notes app when you can capture contacts, document feedback, record events, and keep your clients updated, all with one app? Features include private fields so you can keep information confidential, a counter to track the number of open house visitors, and the option to create custom events. You can share reports and listing stats with clients, store property access codes, and create or edit calendar appointments. The app is free to use for two or fewer listings.

- An all-in-one app
- Log, track, and report on listing activity
- Follow up with buyers
- Collect and send feedback to clients
- Free for up to two listings

Live Virtual Touring by Realync

Also create polished pre-recorded videos on your own.

The Live Virtual Touring app by Realync allows you to create amazing live virtual open houses, live virtual tours, and pre-recorded videos of real estate properties to help make an immersive experience for prospective buyers. During these tours, users can send messages, take photos, interact using audio and live video, view details about the local area, and more. These live videos and tours help real estate agents to close their deals faster, generate more leads, and close more deals overall. As a real estate agent who uses this app, you will be able to virtually walk your clients through properties while you interact with them in real time. You can answer questions they have about the property, show off the surrounding area, and cater the tour to their needs.

- Live virtual private tours
- Live virtual open houses
- Create DIY pre-recorded videos
- Provide better service
- Free real estate app for iPad

Agentdesks real estate CRM - Agent referrals, Property listings, contact & client management

Agentdesks helps you generate leads, manage your properties and clients, and form your referral network of agents from your iPad. Need to improve your sales numbers and productivity? This is one way to do it. It helps you manage your time, follow up with clients, pay attention to recent updates on buyers and property listings, and work with your clients, all at the same time. The app sources leads from Trulia, Zillow, email, contacts list, and your spreadsheets. You can classify your contacts as investors, renter owners, renters, buyers, and sellers, which helps you keep them differentiated if you're representing a buyer or seller.

- Add tasks and notes to keep track of your clients' needs
- Recommend properties on the go
- Generates matches and leads
- Classify contacts
- Free real estate app for iPad

REclarity - Real Estate Video Message Maker

Select images, capture with camera, or load from PDF.

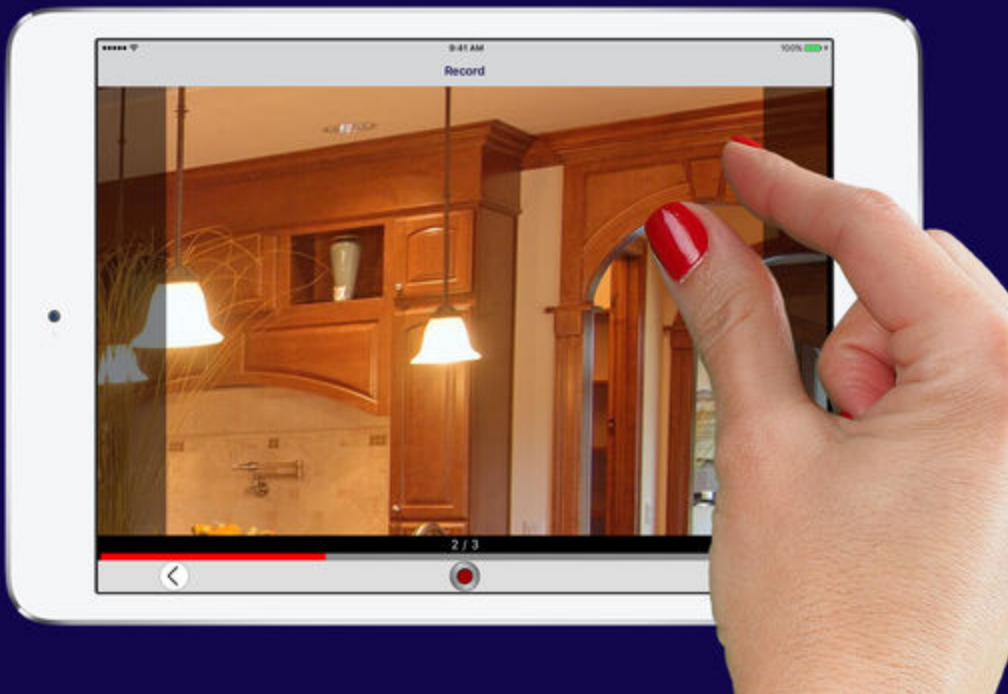

Record your voice while browsing through your photos.

While recording, double tap or pinch zoom for closeup details.

Choose a pointer and single tap to point out important elements.

REclarity is a video messaging app for those in the real estate business. When you're in a rush you will love the ability to create photo-based video messages that put your voice together with photos. Use the app to share visual status on construction or repair work, report and describe property damage, show off important features of a listing, answer questions with amazing clarity, and more. The app will help you become more efficient since you will spend less time typing out emails and attaching photos. Just select the images you want to use, tap record, and create a message up to two minutes long. Swipe through the photos, tap and zoom, use the live pointer to highlight details as you talk to make the presentation even more precise. You can also add music.

- Narrate while you swipe through up to 12 images
- Highlight important features with the live pointer
- Zoom to show detail while you talk
- Share via email, text, FB, YouTube, or any other social media platform
- Free with in-app purchase for all features

American Airlines Sues Gogo Over Lousy Internet

53 days ago

Fed up with the in-flight wi-fi service, American Airlines has sued its onboard Internet provider Gogo. The airline said reliable wi-fi is an essential service required onboard, and other competitors are able to offer more speedy service and at lower expenses. A survey has shown that wi-fi availability is a preference for 66 percent of the passengers. The lawsuit also pointed out that ViaSat, the net provider for Jet Blue, Virgin American and United Airlines, is providing better service....

Wunderlist: To-Do List & Tasks

The Wunderlist app is incredibly popular, and for good reason. This app gives you a way to create tasks and to do lists with ease. Now, these lists can apply to work, school, or just personal items. Add such things as reminders, due dates, notes, sub-tasks, and much more. It syncs across all your devices so go ahead and schedule an item, organize events, add events, and delete them. You can also share the lists you create with other family members, friends, co-workers, etc. There is a Today Widget that lets you swipe down on the screen for a quick glance of what you've got coming up.

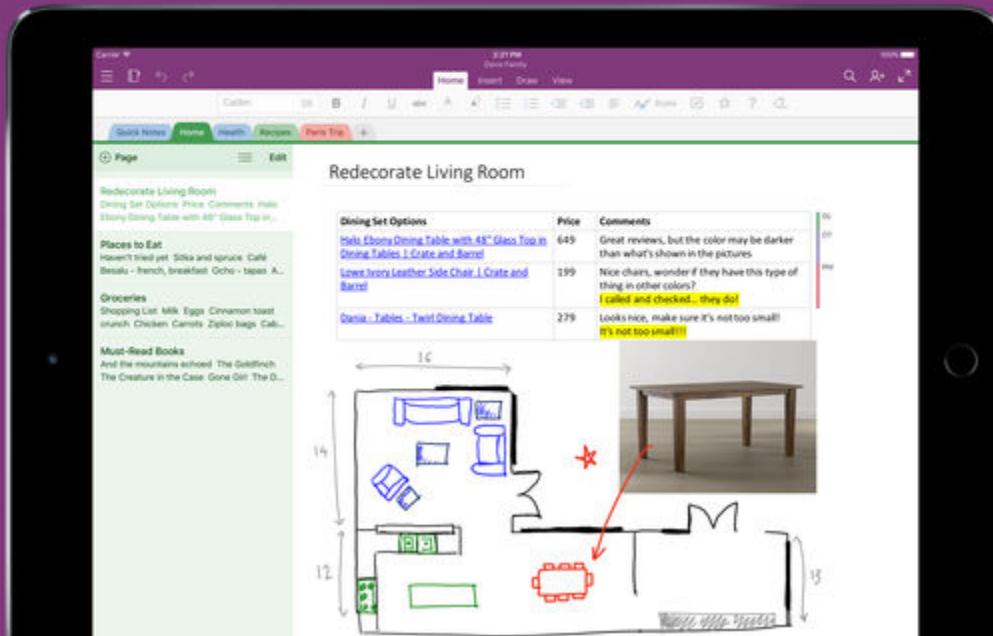

- The app is incredibly popular

Microsoft OneNote

Welcome to OneNote
Your very own digital notebook.

Write anywhere

Hard to believe it's not paper.

The screenshot shows a tablet with a purple header. The main content is a handwritten note titled "Parallel Flow". It includes a diagram of a heat exchanger with two parallel tubes. The top tube is labeled "cold" and the bottom tube is labeled "hot". Arrows indicate the flow direction. To the right is a graph of temperature  $T$  versus position  $x$ . The hot fluid temperature  $T_h$  starts at  $T_{h,i}$  and ends at  $T_{h,e}$ . The cold fluid temperature  $T_c$  starts at  $T_{c,i}$  and ends at  $T_{c,e}$ . The graph shows that the temperature difference between the two fluids decreases as they move through the exchanger.

Parallel Flow

hot:  $q = \dot{m}_h c_{p,h} (T_{h,i} - T_{h,e})$ cold:  $q = \dot{m}_c c_{p,c} (T_{c,e} - T_{c,i})$

$$dT_h - dT_c = dq \left( -\frac{1}{c_h} - \frac{1}{c_c} \right)$$
$$dq = U dA (T_h - T_c)$$
$$\int_0^L \frac{d(T_h - T_c)}{T_h - T_c} = -U \left( \frac{1}{c_h} - \frac{1}{c_c} \right) \int_0^L dA$$

Double your productivity

Multitask with Slide Over & Split View.

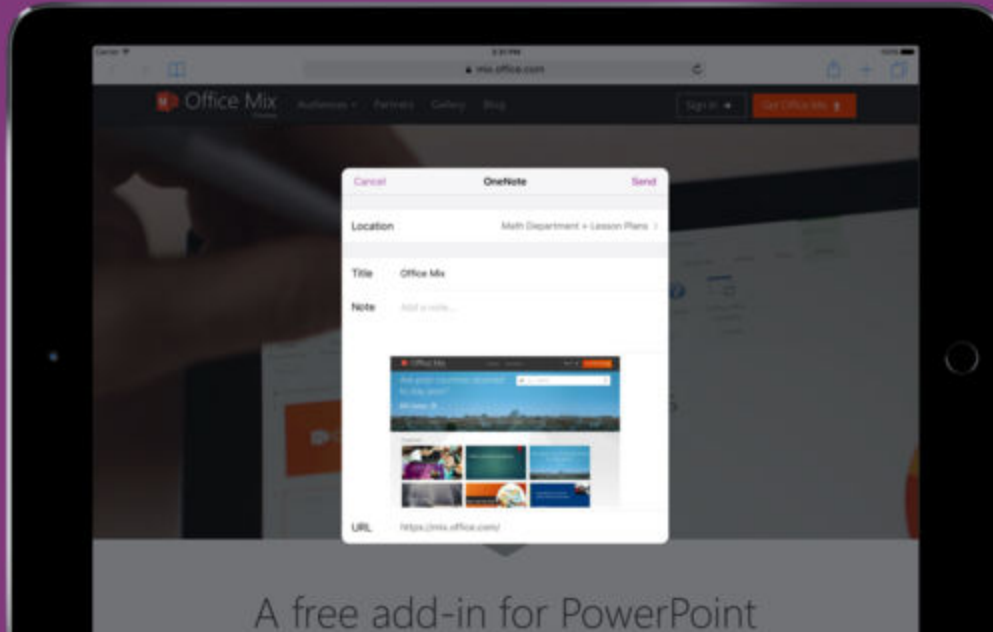

The screenshot shows a tablet with a purple header. The screen is split into two vertical panels. The left panel displays a circuit diagram with a voltage source  $V$  and a resistor  $R$ . A blue circular arrow indicates the direction of current  $I$ . The right panel displays a document titled "Ohm's Law" with the following text:

Ohm's Law
Tuesday, August 25, 2015 2:25 PM

- Georg Ohm
- 1827
- Current through a conductor between two points is directly proportional to the potential difference across the two points
- $V = IR$

Clip your life
Remember anything from anywhere.

Whether you are a writer or an entrepreneur, it's important to have a notebook handy to put your ideas together. What's even better is a multimedia notebook such as Microsoft's official OneNote app. The app comes packed with organizational features such as renaming, searching, sorting, and creating sections inside numerous notebooks. There's also the possibility of collaborating with family, friends and colleagues to work in the same notebook. This is a universal app which will give you the freedom to access your notes from anywhere you want. Whether it's daily to-do lists or brainstorming a big idea for a screenplay, OneNote can be customized to your liking.

- Microsoft's official digital notebook
- Various organizational features
- Collaborate with others
- Plan your day

One of the best and easiest ways to stay organized is by making notes and it's never been easier than with the Notes app. This one makes it possible to record notes, make memos, add photos, set up reminders, assign color coded categories to the items, and so much more. Be sure to check out the note templates so you don't even have to spend the time to set it up. The idea is that notetaking shouldn't be time-consuming or a hassle. Of course your notes and memos can be shared with others by email, exported to Dropbox, or even download it to your computer by using WiFi.

- Type or record your notes
- Add photos to notes
- Set up color coded categories for your notes
- Make use of the pre-loaded note templates
- Set up reminders

Mobile Revenue

Project Planning Pro - Project, Task & Resource Management

Just as the name of this app would suggest, it is designed to provide professional project planning functionality and offers you a comprehensive interface from which to perform all of the necessary tasks. One thing we really like about this app is that it enables you to view tasks in a Gantt format, providing you with a top-down perspective of everything that needs to be done in a chronological order that makes sense at a glance. What's more, you can export your projects via email and cloud-based storage servers.

- Supports XML formats
- Calculate budgets for your project
- Customizable task links
- Top-down view of Gantt chart progress
- Filter tasks according to priorities

Trello

Get perspective on all of your projects

Create a board, then add lists with cards

Drag and drop cards between lists

Collaborate with your team from anywhere

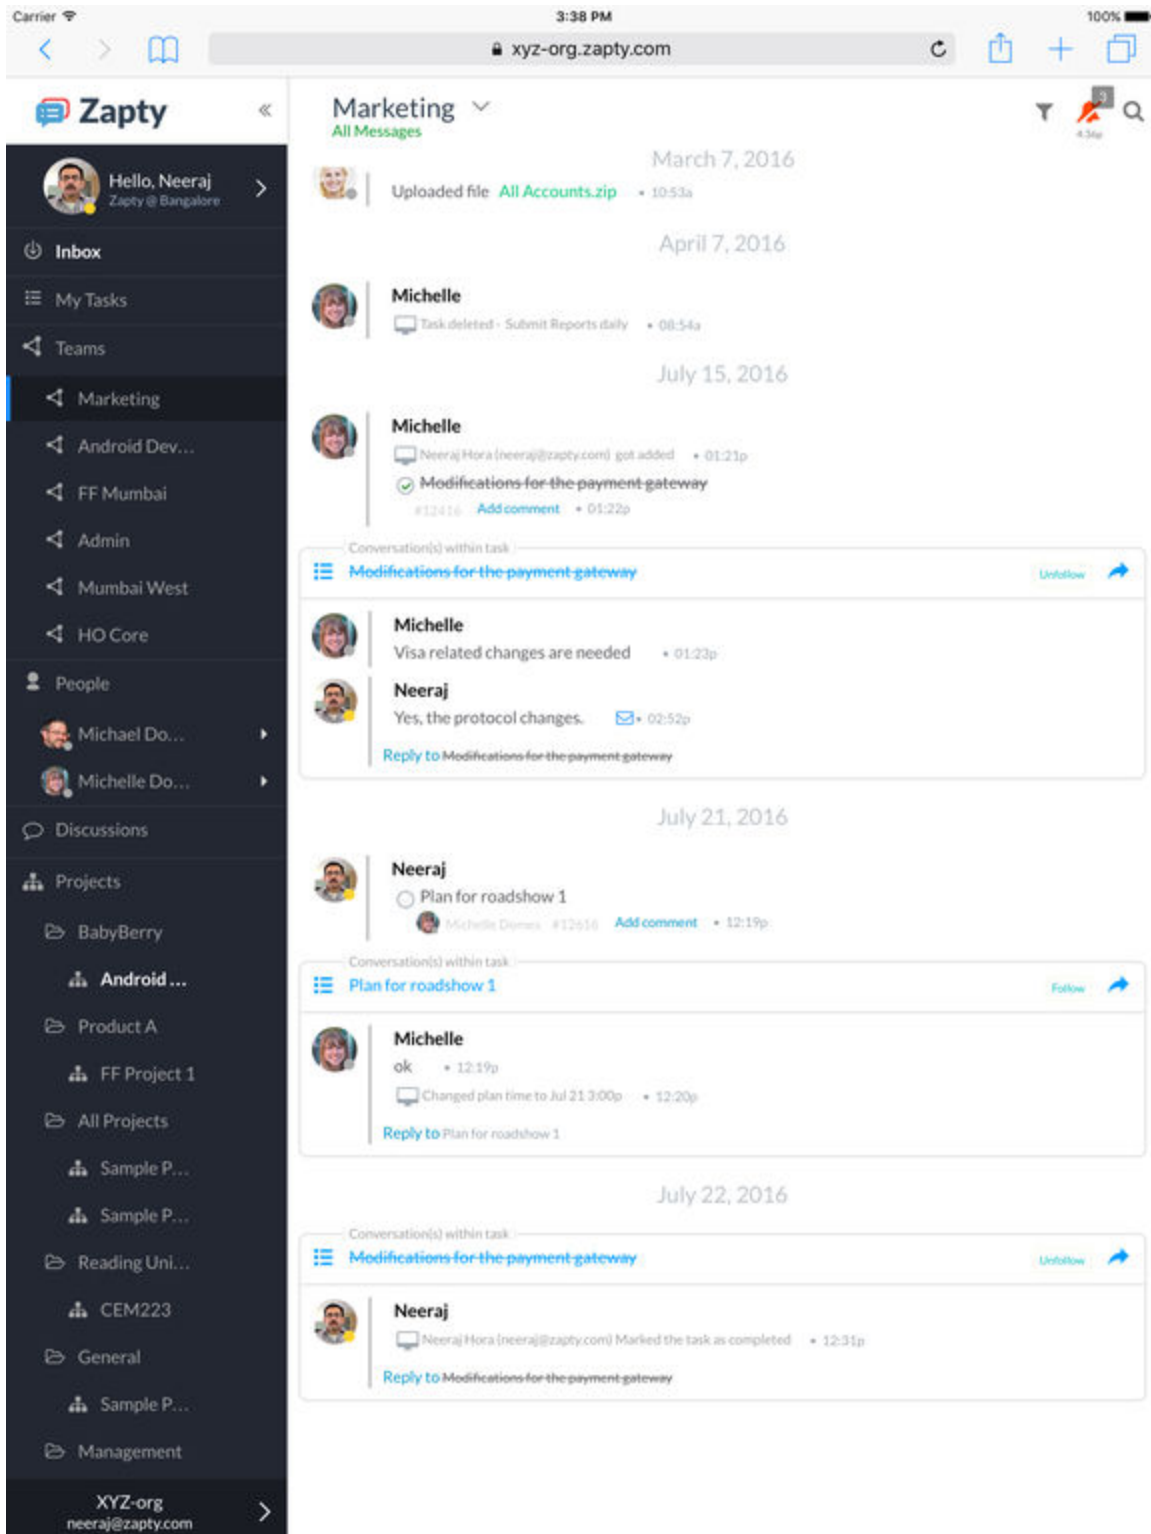

Trello will manage your projects and help you stay organized whether it's just for you or a team of freelancers. The developers have dubbed it a whiteboard with super powers and we think it's all that and then some. Create boards to organize anything you want and use them for solo purposes or with colleagues, employees, etc. You can create checklists, to-do lists, projects, novels and more. Each user has their own avatar and you can see if anyone else is currently working on a project or what their progress is. Attach photos, PDFs, videos or any other file needed. There are in-app purchases for Trello subscriptions from 1 month to 1 year.

- Manage your work or your team's work
- Create boards to stay organized
- Monitor the progress of others
- Add photos, videos, and other files
- In-app purchases for subscriptions
